Book Week

The first week back after the half term holiday is Book Week. We are very excited as we have LOTS of amazing and exciting things planned for this week.

Half Term Challenges

In readiness for Book Week, Mrs Shingler and Miss Nicholls have created three different half term challenges for you.

Book in a Jar Competition

You are invited to think about how your favourite book could be represented in a simple jar. Use your imagination to take an old jar into a creative project.

Tasty Book Competition

Can you create a recipe or maybe decorate a cake to represent your favourite book? Take a photograph to show us how imaginative you have been!

Pictures of you reading your book in interesting places

Could you take a photograph of you reading in interesting places for our display please?

We would love to see your entries, and you are welcome to take part in all of the challenges and competitions.

A prize for KS1 and KS2 winners for each competition, which will be a £5.00 gift voucher to spend at the Book Fair in School.

Book Week Menu

Mrs Lendrum has created an extra special menu to coincide with the different days and events we have planned for Book Week. Please see the menu on the following page.

As always, sandwiches and jacket potatoes will be available daily.

World Book Day

World Book Day is on Thursday 2nd March. You are invited to dress up on this day as your favourite character from a book. If you could also bring the book that you are a character from into school, that would make it extra special. We will celebrate World Book Day by showing off our costumes to Ruth Quayle, our visiting author.

TO PARENTS/

CARERS!

Hello,

Our names are Phoebe Popsys and Grace Carrington. We are wondering if you could help us look after the birds.

We have come up with an idea of bird baths, bird seeders and seeds. This would mean a lot to us if you ~~any~~ choose one of the options!

Many thanks,

Grace C and Phoebe P ☺
